TEAM NOTES

U.S. OPEN CUP CONTINUES THIS WEEK

The Revs return to U.S. Open Cup action on Tuesday when the team travels to face the Philadelphia Union at 7 p.m. at PPL Park ... the teams will meet in a quarterfinal match, with the winner advancing to the semifinals the second week in August ... currently six MLS teams remain in the U.S. Open Cup draw (New England, Philadelphia, Dallas, Chicago, Portland, Seattle), as well as two NASL teams (Atlanta Silverbacks and Carolina Railhawks).

REVS AGAINST MLS TEAMS IN USOC

Wednesday's match will be the club's 14th match against an MLS club in U.S. Open Cup play ... overall, the Revs are 5-8-0 in those matches, including a 3-1-0 mark at home and a 2-7-0 record on the road.

REVOLUTION IN THE U.S. OPEN CUP

The Revolution has a 15-11-4 all-time record in U.S. Open Cup action ... the club is also the 2007 U.S. Open Cup champion, marking the club's first-ever cup championship ... the Revs played in their first tournament in 1997, and advanced to the final for the first time in 2001 ... the team fell in its opening round in 2003, 2004 and 2005, before advancing to the quarterfinal in 2006 ... one year later, the Revs won the tournament, topping FC Dallas, 3-2, on the road to claim the title ... the team returned to the semifinals in 2008, but dropped their opening matches in 2009 and 2010, and made it through one round of MLS play-in action in 2011 ... last year, the Revs advanced to the quarterfinals before falling to D.C.

THE U.S. OPEN CUP IN BRIEF

Dating back to 1914, the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup is the oldest cup competition in United States soccer and is among the oldest in the world ... open to all affiliated amateur and professional teams in the U.S., the Open Cup is a 101-year-old, single-elimination tournament ... the winner claims the Dewar Challenge Trophy, one of the oldest nationally-contested trophies in American team sports.

SEMIFINAL SCENARIOS

Should the Revolution advance to the semifinals with a win on Tuesday, the Revolution would either:

- If the Revolution defeats Philadelphia and FC Dallas (MLS) defeats the Carolina Railhawks (NASL), the Revolution would travel to play FC Dallas at Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas on Wednesday, August 13, at 9 p.m. ET
- If the Revolution defeats Philadelphia and the Railhawks beat FC Dallas, the Revolution would travel to play Carolina at WakeMed Soccer Park in Cary, N.C., on Wednesday, August 13, at 7:30 p.m. ET

JAM-PACKED JULY

With the Revolution's advancement in the U.S. Open Cup, New England has a very congested schedule in the current six-week span ... between June 25 and Aug. 2, the Revolution has 10 matches scheduled in the span of 39 days ... that span includes two USOC matches and eight league matches ... there are five home matches and five road matches (Salt Lake, Philadelphia, LA-Dallas joint trip and New York) ... before this current stretch, the Revolution did not play more than one game per week since the start of the season.

STREAKING AGAIN, BUT THE WRONG WAY

From late April to late May, the Revolution was the hottest team in MLS, reeling off five consecutive wins – tied for the longest stretch in MLS so far this season – as part of a seven-game unbeaten run ... however, since May 31, the Revs have dropped four straight league games, falling at Montreal (May 31), at home against New York (June 8) and Philadelphia (June 28) and at Salt Lake (July 4) ... the team's current four-game losing streak in MLS play is the team's longest since the team dropped five straight from July 29 to Aug. 25, 2012 ... while the team has dropped four straight in league play, the team has won back-to-back games in U.S. Open Cup action (June 18 at Richmond and June 25 against Rochester).

WHERE THE TEAM SITS NOW

The Revolution sat atop, or shared the lead, of the Eastern Conference for six weeks from Week 9 through Week 14 of the MLS schedule ... however, after four straight losses, the team now sits third in the East ... the Revs are five points back of D.C. United (first place with 28 points) and Sporting KC (second place with 26 points) ... both teams have played 17 games, while the Revs have only played 16.

DORMAN DUE BACK THIS WEEK

Andy Dorman was not available last Friday in Salt Lake after he picked up his sixth caution – fifth with the MLS Good Behavior bonus – in the team's match against Philly on June 28 ... Dorman had started the last 14 matches dating back to March 15 in the team's match at Philly before missing Friday's match ... Dorman is eighth on the team in minutes played with 1,185 in 14 matches ... in his stead against Real Salt Lake, A.J. Soares pushed up to the defensive midfield role from his customary center back spot, and Andrew Farrell slid in from right back to play centrally alongside Jose Goncalves.

BARNES COMES STORMING BACK

Darrius Barnes was whistled for a foul in his defensive box at Real Salt Lake on Saturday, resulting in a penalty kick attempt for RSL – which they converted in the 35th minute through Javier Morales ... Barnes was called for undercutting Chris Schuler on a corner kick, and Morales converted the resulting PK ... however, two minutes later, Barnes exacted revenge by drawing the Revs level ... on a free kick in the 37th minute, Barnes connected with Chris Tierney's free kick delivery and struck a diving header past Nick Rimando to equalize at 1-1 ... the goal was Barnes' first of the season and the second of his career ... his last goal came on Sept. 22, 2012 – a 95th minute equalizer at home against New York.

TIERNEY'S DELIVERY DOES IT AGAIN

Chris Tierney picked up his third assist of the season on Friday at Real Salt Lake, delivering a free kick from deep on the right flank that Darrius Barnes headed in to knot the score at 1-1 ... Tierney is now tied for the team lead in assists ... two of his three assists this season have come off his free kick delivery ... Tierney now has 24 career assists to rank eighth in Revs history, and he sits two back of seventh-place Jay Heaps (26 assists) ... Tierney is tied for fifth in club history in assists per game with a 0.16 per game mark.

SHUTTLEWORTH STEPS BACK IN GOAL

Bobby Shuttleworth stepped back into goal on Friday at Real Salt Lake after sitting out the team's match against Philadelphia on June 28 ... Brad Knighton had started the team's last three matches overall – including a pair of U.S. Open Cup matches (June 18 at Richmond, June 25 against Rochester) and the June 28 match against Philly ... Shuttleworth has now made 14 starts, going 6-6-2 on the season with a 1.21 goals against average to rank seventh in MLS.

Jay Heaps on the goalkeeping situation: "I think both keepers have shown really well. It's not one of these things where the day one starter gets named and the competition is over. This competition – and when I say it, it's a very good competition – both guys root for each other and they know each other well. There's a kind of support for each other. I think that it's one of those things that is going to go on all year. It's not going to be the day one starter, and then whoever it is, he's the starter for 34 games. I think there's going to be a battle throughout the season."

KNIGHTON STEPPED IN AGAINST OLD CLUB ... AGAIN

Brad Knighton drew the start against Philadelphia on June 28, marking his second MLS start of the campaign ... his other league start came on May 17 at Philadelphia ... Knighton played the 2010 season with the Union after the club picked him up from the Revs in the Expansion Draft ... while Knighton had served as Bobby Shuttleworth's back-up for most of the season, Knighton has started the Revs' two U.S. Open Cup matches, going 2-0-0 with a 1.50 goals against average in the tournament.

SENE SEEING MORE TIME

Saer Sene has appeared in each of the team's last three league matches, coming on as a substitute in each game since June 8 ... he also started the team's U.S. Open Cup match against Rochester ... in the four total appearances, Sene has scored two goals – one each in USOC play and league play.

BENGTSON BACK FROM BRAZIL

Jerry Bengtson is back with the Revolution after the Honduran forward departed on May 17 to join up with the Honduras World Cup squad ... Bengtson started all three of Los Catrachos' matches in Brazil as Honduras exited after the group stage ... he played 45 minutes against France on Sunday, June 15, and 90 minutes against both against Ecuador on Friday, June 20, and Switzerland on Wednesday, June 25 ... Honduras fell, 3-0, in their opener against France, dropped a 2-1 match to Ecuador and lost 3-0 to Switzerland to end their stay at the tournament ... Bengtson now has 47 caps with Honduras, scoring 19 international goals ... he is expected to re-join the Revolution this weekend.

IT TAKES TWO TO WIN

In the Revolution's seven wins, the Revolution has scored at least two goals in each victory ... in the matches in which the Revs have scored one or fewer goals, New England is 0-7-2 with six of those results coming via shutout (0-5-1) ... four of the team's wins have come by two or more goals, while three wins were by one goal.

BUT SCORING ONE ISN'T PERFECT ANYMORE

In each of the team's last two losses, the Revs have scored one goal and lost ... before the team's 3-1 loss to Philadelphia on June 28 (and last Friday's 2-1 loss at Real Salt Lake), the Revolution were undefeated in matches in which the team scored a goal ... before the Philly match, the Revs were 7-0-1 when scoring a goal, with the lone draw coming in a 1-1 draw at Chicago on April 19.

TEAM NOTES

SCORING STILL HELPING THE REVS TAKE POINTS

In games in which the Revolution has scored at least one goal, the team has come away with 22 of a possible 30 points ... in the six matches in which the Revs have been shut out, New England is winless and has only taken one point out of a possible 18.

START STRONG, FINISH STRONG

New England is a perfect 6-0-0 when scoring the first goal of a game ... the Revs are the only team in the league with a perfect record when striking first in a match ... five other teams are undefeated when scoring the first goal, but each has seen at least one match end in a draw after scoring first.

REVS WAITING FOR DAYS GONE "BYE"

With their designated bye weekend coming in Week 22 of the schedule (Aug. 9-13), the Revolution will be the last team in MLS who will enjoy a bye weekend outside of the league's recent World Cup break ... that bye will also come with open arms as the team is in the midst of a 10-games-in-39-days stretch leading up the bye weekend ... with the exception of Portland – who does not have an in-season bye week in their schedule besides the World Cup break – every other team in MLS will have enjoyed at least one bye weekend before the Revs sit out Week 22 of the schedule ... this year's schedule is a stark change from the 2013 slate that saw the Revs have two bye weeks in the first six weeks of the schedule: Week 1 and Week 6.

BACK FOUR IN FLUX THIS SEASON

So far this season, six different defenders have seen time along the Revs' backline and Jay Heaps has used seven different starting four-man groupings in MLS matches:

Defender	Appearances	Starts	Positions Played
A.J. Soares	16	16	CB, (CM)
Andrew Farrell	15	15	RB, CB
Chris Tierney	15	13	LB
Darrius Barnes	10	7	LB, RB
Jose Goncalves	10	10	CB
Kevin Alston	4	4	RB, LB

Defensive groupings (LB, CB, CB, RB)	Matches	Record
Tierney, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	6	2-4-1
Tierney, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	4	4-0-0
Alston, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	1	1-0-0
Alston, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-0-1
Tierney, Goncalves, Soares, Alston	1	0-1-0
Tierney, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-1-0
Tierney, Goncalves, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-1-0

SOARES IS AN UNBLEMISHED MAN

A.J. Soares is now the team's only player remaining who has played every minute of every game so far this season ... coming out of the World Cup break, both Soares and Teal Bunbury had that distinction, but with Bunbury being withdrawn in the second half last Saturday against Philly, Soares remains as the team's only iron man this season ... Soares has started all 16 matches, and has played all 1,440 minutes.

FARRELL FINDING HIS SPOT

Andrew Farrell was heralded coming into MLS as one of the league and U.S.' top defensive prospects, and after a stand-out rookie season, is now displaying a consistently top-notch effort as a sophomore at both right back and center back ... Farrell, who played all of his minutes in 32 matches at right back last year, has seen time at both out wide right and in the middle in 2014 ... he's been named to MLS' team of the week three times already this season - once as a right back and twice as a center back - and has been noticeably controlling along the backline this year ... Farrell's consistent and stellar play has pundits looking ahead to a potential star role at the international level: "... he's emerged as a defender set to stake his international claim during the next World Cup cycle." – Brian Straus, SI.com (May 2, 2014)

THE BEARD BET

Andrew Farrell is styling a growing beard, and it's all because of a bet ... in the off-season, Farrell challenged his brother, Will, that he would grow a beard until he scored his first MLS goal ... after coming oh-so-close against San Jose last year - Jon Busch made a shoe-string stop on a full extension to his right - Farrell is determined to score his first MLS goal this year - or have a growing beard for the season.

FAGUNDEZ IS FINALLY A GRADUATE

Already Major League Soccer's all-time leading scorer as a teenager, Diego Fagundez accomplished another personal milestone on June 5: he graduated high school ... he walked in Fitchburg, Mass.' Goodrich Academy's graduation ceremony, earning his diploma in four years – on time – playing professional soccer the last three-and-a-half years ... during the ceremony, he made a speech thanking his principle and guidance counselor, and also presented the two with signed, framed Fagundez jerseys.

YES, FAGUNDEZ IS STILL A TEENAGER

Diego Fagundez, still a teenager, is now in his fourth year as a member of the Revs ... Fagundez, who turned 19 on Feb. 14, had a career year in 2013, scoring 13 goals (to tie for fifth in MLS) and added seven assists to lead the club in scoring ... the Leominster, Mass., product was also voted team MVP ... his 13 goals last season all came from the run of play, and marked the highest season goal total for a teenager in MLS history – and he is the only teenager in MLS history to score 10 or more goals in one season ... Fagundez now has 21 goals in his career and holds the league record for goal scoring by a teenager, last set by Eddie Gaven (16 goals).

Rank	Player	Teen Goals
1.	Diego Fagundez	21
2.	Eddie Gaven	16
3.	Jozy Altidore	15
4.	Freddy Adu	12
5.	Andy Najar	10

FAGUNDEZ CLAIMS NINTH PLACE FOR HIMSELF

With 21 career goals, Diego Fagundez has claimed sole possession of ninth place on the Revs' career goal scoring chart ... he entered the season with 17 goals - tied for 10th with Andy Dorman - but his two goal effort against Seattle on May 11 jumped him over Raul Diaz Arce for ninth place ... Fagundez has also been an opportunistic scorer, and his seven game-winning goals are seventh in club history, tied with Kheli Dube.

CALDWELL CLOSING THE DOOR

Although Scott Caldwell hasn't found himself in the starting 11 this year as much as he did in the 2013 season, his value off the bench has been huge for the Revs ... in the eight matches in which Caldwell has come on as substitute, the Revs have posted a 7-0-1 record:

Date	Opponent	Minute subbed on	Result
March 22	Vancouver	89	T, 0-0
March 29	San Jose	70	W, 2-1
April 12	Houston	71	W, 2-0
April 26	Kansas City	71	W, 2-0
May 3	Toronto	57	W, 2-1
May 11	Seattle	63	W, 5-0
May 17	Philadelphia	59	W, 5-3
May 24	D.C.	81	W, 2-1

NGUYEN: MLS MVP CANDIDATE? THEY SAY SO ...

Lee Nguyen has helped back the Revs to the top echelon of the Eastern Conference standings, and he's earned deserved attention for his efforts ... with a team-leading five goals and a strong hold on the Revs' attack, see what media are saying about the crafty midfielder:

"Lee Nguyen has been Best XI-caliber so far in 2014."- MLSSoccer.com in Power Rankings (April 29, 2014)

"There's been a disappointing lack of buzz for Nguyen so far this year, given that he's been playing at a Best XI level ... He is the best player in MLS that nobody is talking about at the moment." - Matt Doyle, MLSSoccer.com (May 3, 2014)

"Lee Nguyen is anything but the prototypical Major League Soccer player. He's not imposing on a physical level, and he isn't particularly fast. But he is one of the smartest midfielders in the league, and it has shown this year." - Liviu Bird, SI.com (May 5, 2014)

"The Revs offensive outburst showed exactly what it looks like when a team clicks, but the creativity and flair of the team are defined by midfielder Lee Nguyen. Nguyen may not have the stats to go head-to-head with some of the league's elite, but there are few players more instrumental to their team's success than the 27-year-old midfielder. Nguyen is constantly demonstrating his value as the catalyst of a now-potent Revolution attack, displaying the creativity and calmness on the ball to spring many a Revs offensive opportunity." - Soccer by Ives in naming Nguyen the player of the month for May (June 10, 2014)

... AND DOING IT WHILE GETTING HACK-ATTACKED

Lee Nguyen has drawn his praise for leading the Revolution's attack while getting routinely hacked in the process ... Nguyen is tied for seventh in fouls suffered in MLS play, with opponents being whistled for 37 fouls in 15 games against the cunning midfielder ... Portland's Darlington Nagbe leads the league with 51 fouls suffered in 18 games, with seven players having been fouled 37-40 times so far this season, including Nguyen.

"ROWEING" TO WINS

In 2013, Kelyn Rowe had one of the more impressive sophomore campaigns of any MLS player in recent history ... the 22-year-old scored seven goals and added a team-best eight assists in 33 appearances last year, while developing his now familiar "Roweing" goal celebration ... while his season has been stunted this year by a pair of hamstring injuries and the emergence of Daigo Kobayashi in his stead, Rowe's two-year resume is so impressive that Rowe was cited as an upstart candidate for 2014 MLS MVP at the start of the season: "A lot of that falls on the shoulders of Rowe, who has the talent to be an MVP candidate. Seriously: He is one of my dark-horse picks this year..." – Matt Doyle, MLSSoccer.com analyst.

Chris Tierney, the Revs' longest tenured player, is one of MLS' most dangerous - and accurate - free kick takers ... the left-footed Tierney topped Opta's list of most accurate free-kick takers since 2011, as published by MLSSoccer.com early in 2014 ... his average deviation off target of 7.81 degrees bettered second-place Jeff Larentowicz ... Houston's Brad Davis - considered by many the top set-piece taker in the league - had a variance of 13.24 degrees off target ... of Tierney's seven career goals, three have been direct free kicks:

Tierney's Free Kick Goals

May 21, 2011	at San Jose	86th minute	L, 2-1
July 4, 2011	at Real Salt Lake	16th minute	T, 3-3
May 17, 2014	at Philadelphia Union	57th minute	W, 5-3

OPPONENTS DOING IT ON THEIR OWN

So far this season, the Revolution's opponents have scored two own goals for New England ... San Jose's Victor Bernardez added one on March 29 in the Revs' 2-1 win, while Seattle's Chad Marshall scored one for the Revs on May 11 in New England's 5-0 win ... the two own goals received this year is the second-highest total in club history already (with 1998, 2003, 2008 and 2012) – with 18 games still remaining ... in 2005, opponents scored three own goals, the most the Revs have ever received in one season.

HERE'S NEUMANN

Rookie Steve Neumann has been the Revs' go-to guy off the bench so far this season ... he's made a team-high 11 substitute appearances this year, all coming in the central midfield ... the first-year midfielder out of Georgetown was selected fourth overall in the 2014 SuperDraft ... he has come on in the second half in each of the last 10 league games, with his 71st-minute appearance against New York on June 8 his longest of the season so far ... outside of league action, Neumann has started both of the Revs' U.S. Open Cup matches.

SHUTTLEWORTH THE STEADY

After having a career season in 2013, Bobby Shuttleworth has parlayed that into another successful campaign in 2014 ... with 14 league appearances so far this year, he is seventh in MLS in goals against average (1.21), tied for third in wins (6) and tied for fifth in shutouts (4) ... a tall, vocal keeper who communicates and organizes his defenders well, Shuttleworth is now in his sixth MLS season with 57 appearances, 55 starts and a career goals against average of 1.35.

ALL-STAR CANDIDATES ANNOUNCED

The Revolution has eight players on the fan ballot for the MLS All-Star Game, which will be played Aug. 6 in Portland against Bayern Munich ... Teal Bunbury, Diego Fagundez, Andrew Farrell, Jose Goncalves, Patrick Mullins, Lee Nguyen, A.J. Soares and Bobby Shuttleworth are among the 152 media-nominated players from which fans can vote ... the First XI - one goalkeeper, three defenders, five midfielders and two forwards - will be chosen by the fans, including one forward through an EA Sports campaign ... voting is open at mlssoccer.com through July 11.

"HOMETOWN" FEEL ON THE ROSTER

Four players on the Revs' roster – and the head coach – are New England natives, giving the team a true hometown feel:

Local Products	Hometown
Scott Caldwell	Braintree, Mass.
Charlie Davies	Manchester, N.H.
Diego Fagundez	Leominster, Mass.
Chris Tierney	Wellesley, Mass.
Jay Heaps	Longmeadow, Mass.

Both Caldwell and Fagundez played for the Revolution Academy and are Homegrown players ... Tierney and Davies played together on the Boston Bolts, before playing collegiately at Virginia and Boston College, respectively ... Heaps, who was born in Nashua, N.H., and raised in Longmeadow, Mass., has been a member of the Revolution organization for 14 seasons now, as a player, broadcaster and now head coach.

ROCHESTER AFFILIATION RENEWED

The Revolution and the Rochester Rhinos (USL PRO) have renewed their partnership that makes the Rhinos the official USL PRO affiliate of the Revolution ... this is the second year of the teams' affiliation and is one of the founding partnerships of the MLS and USL PRO relationship that launched in 2013 to help further the development of professional soccer in the U.S. and Canada ... the agreement calls for the Revolution to loan a minimum of four players to the Rhinos for the season ... Rochester head coach Bob Lilley joined the Revolution in Bradenton, Fla., for a part of its 12-day training camp to observe players and collaborate with the Revolution coaches.

International fitness star Shaun T – the creator of best-selling fitness programs INSANITY, Focus T25 and Hip Hop Abs – will make a special appearance at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, July 12, when he leads a live workout on the field before the New England Revolution hosts the Chicago Fire later in the evening ... Special ticket packages start at $85 and are on sale now through revolutionsoccer.net/shaunt ... packages include a spot in the live workout, a Q&A session with Shaun T after the workout, a meet & greet and group photo session with Shaun T, access to a reserved tailgate area between the workout and the Revs match, and a midfield seat for the Revolution match ... special package options are available for fitness fans who want to be closer to Shaun T and work out in the first 10 rows.

#OURFRIENDCLYDE

Former Revolution midfielder Clyde Simms retired from professional soccer in early 2014 because of his battle with kidney disease ... while he was one of MLS' most consistent players for nine seasons during his time with D.C. United and the Revs, kidney disease ended Simms' career that also included a look by the U.S. National Team ... Clyde's disease - Focal Segmental Glomerulosclerosis (FSGS) – has now progressed to the point that he needs a kidney transplant ... the usual waiting time for a suitable kidney match is about four years, and many people on the waiting list don't have that long before needing to go on dialysis – including Simms ... people interested in donating a kidney first need to contact a donation center and be tested ... to be tested to see if you are a match to help Clyde – or other people waiting for a kidney match – please contact Massachusetts General Hospital's Living Donor Program at (617) 643-7193 ... more info: www.revolutionsoccer.net/OurFriendClyde.

NEW MLS AND U.S. SOCCER TV DEAL ANNOUNCED

Major League Soccer and U.S. Soccer announced a new television and media rights partnerships with ESPN, FOX Sports and Univision Deportes on May 12, reaching eight-year agreements with the networks to televise MLS and U.S. Soccer matches in the U.S. through the end of 2022 ... the deal includes designated days for nationally-televised league matches, including Fridays on Univision's family of networks, and Sunday with 5 p.m. ET kickoffs on ESPN's networks and 7 p.m. ET kickoffs on Fox's channels ... the league's digital streaming out-of-market package will also move to the WatchESPN platform.

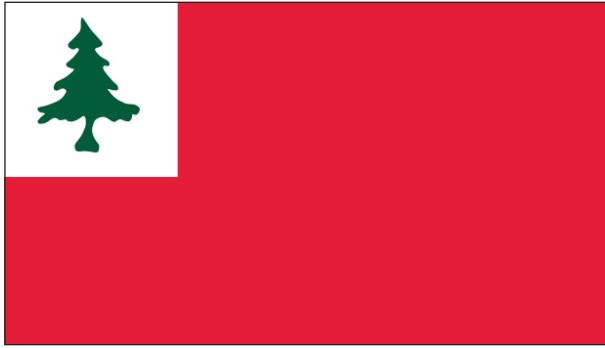

REVS GETTING REPS IN THE BROADCAST STUDIO

Several members of the Revolution organization are serving as expert analysts on Comcast SportsNet New England's coverage of the 2014 FIFA World Cup ... Darrius Barnes, GM Mike Burns, play-by-play man Brad Feldman, Brad Knighton, A.J. Soares and Chris Tierney have joined U.S. Women's National Team legend Kristine Lilly as in-studio analysts for CSN's nightly "Cup Reports" ... the Revs' representatives have rotated throughout the tournament, with their reports airing nightly on the 6 p.m. (7 p.m. re-air) and 10:30 p.m. (11:30 p.m. re-air) editions of SportsNet Central.

MULLINS OPINES ON WORLD CUP

While some of his teammates have been getting reps in front of the camera to analyze the World Cup, rookie forward Patrick Mullins has been doing the same from behind the computer ... Mullins has penned several guest columns for boston.com talking about various World Cup topics, including stand-out performances, top goals and his so-called "Group of Life."

FLAG OF NEW ENGLAND

Long before the sewing of the American flag as we know it -- before there were the United States, and hundreds of years before its slightly-altered stars and stripes emerged on the Revolution club badge -- a flag of a different design was flown proudly in the early colonies that now comprise New England.

Historic Revolutionary War artist John Trumbull's depiction of the Battle of Bunker Hill featured a red flag with a green pine tree, which often served as a representation of the New England colonies. While historians argue the exact dates of origin of this early flag, over time, the design stood out as a symbol of honor for the territory.

It was a reflection of unification. It's flown as an homage to the region's pride and passion.

No group has more pride or passion than Revolution supporters, who have flown the flag of New England in Gillette Stadium, and the former Foxboro Stadium, since the club's inception in 1996.

With such a deep connection to both club and country on many different levels, the flag of New England now adorns the Revolution's uniforms -- both as testament to the region's revolutionary history, and as a visual representation of the club's supporters.

Situated on the back of the jersey, at the base of the neck -- a position reserved for the most meaningful representations on soccer jerseys - the flag of New England now lives in honor on the back of every New England Revolution jersey.

Sitting above the players' last names, the Revolution and supporters alike are reminded that the club holds true to its community's historic roots in reverence, and continues to proudly represent the historic region of New England, while symbolically bringing the supporters onto the field, each and every game.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT THE REVS

"(In 2013) This was a team you wanted to watch play. If the New England Revolution was playing -- whether home or away -- you knew that there was a potential for something exciting to happen. And that was because of the players, the individual talents they have. They're young. They go at you. They don't care what anybody says. They control the ball. That translated into results and into them making the playoffs. So hats off to what Jay Heaps has done up there." - Alexi Lalas

"A situation that has been very good to young players with undeniable talent ..." - Alexi Lalas

"...it's becoming clear that those who continue to ignore the Revs do so at their peril ... What an amazing problem, and one that fans should covet. Your team is so concerned with getting forward, with attacking, that they can't just play a boring brand of "end game," passing the ball around the back until time expires. What fan wouldn't want to see that? Seriously, start watching these games. They're really good." - Hayden Bird, BostonInno (May 18, 2014)

HEAD COACH JAY HEAPS

Years with Club: 3

Years coaching in MLS: 3

Career Coaching Record: 30-35-19

Postseason Record: 1-1-0

Jay Heaps is in his third season as the head coach of the New England Revolution and his journey to revitalize the Revs as they return to the upper echelon of Major League Soccer continues after a breakout 2013 campaign ... Heaps has installed a new winning attitude and an exciting, possession-oriented playing style that focuses on the team's dynamic young talent ... after qualifying for the MLS Cup Playoffs in his second season at the helm – and surging up the standings in the final month of 2013 – the Revs are poised for even greater improvement in 2014 ... with the team's core set to return – one that not only turned heads offensively in 2013, but also sat near the top of the league all season defensively – the Revolution is looking to challenge for Major League Soccer's biggest prize this season: MLS Cup ... guiding the up-start, re-built Revs to a 9-17-8 record in his first season in 2012, Heaps turned the Revolution around in 2013, taking the team to a 14-11-9 record, 51 points – the second-highest point total in club history – and a return to the postseason ... behind a precocious group of young players – highlighted by Homegrown star Diego Fagundez, Kelyn Rowe (Heaps' first-ever draft pick) and Andrew Farrell (the number one pick in the 2013 SuperDraft) – as well as off-season signing Jose Goncalves, who ended the campaign as the league's defender of the year, the Revolution turned heads around MLS ... after stepping away from his 11-year MLS playing career following the 2009 season, Heaps returned as the new head coach of the Revolution in November 2011 ... with his appointment, he brought to the bench some of his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, passion and tirelessness.
